

Recipe for a great winter with the Library!

Directions:

- Check out free books, audiobooks, eBooks, movies, music, and magazines.
- Go beyond Google with resources like Biography Reference Bank, Points of View Reference Center, Very Short Introductions, and CultureGrams.
- Try free programs for kids and adults at all 20 locations.

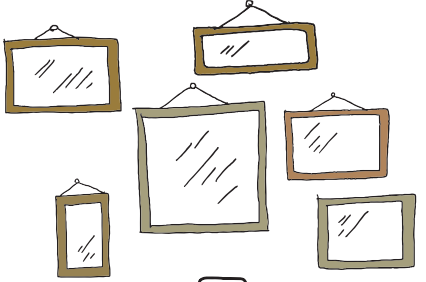

You deserve to shine in 2023!

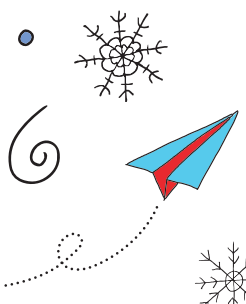

Get started with this great Library challenge list.

-

Join a book group (virtual or in-person.)
-

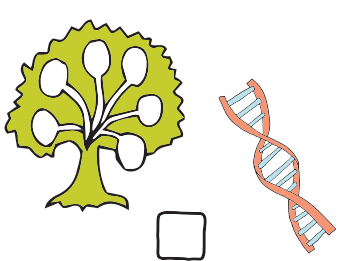

Save money by canceling subscriptions and using Library resources instead.
-

Get (or renew) your passport at the Library.
-

Come see an exhibit at the Main Library art gallery.
-

Try a Better Toledo class.
-

Download an eBook to your phone and read that instead of social media.
-

Go to a Library location you've never visited.
-

Come to the Local History and Genealogy department to start tracing your family tree.
-

Read a book from a genre you haven't tried before.
-

Learn a new language with Transparent Language.
-

Start your dream business with guidance from the Small Business and Nonprofit Support team.
-

Build your resume with free LinkedIn Learning courses.

Rain or shine, the Library provides more than 1,000 open hours per week, plus 24/7 online access. Make the most of your winter with us!

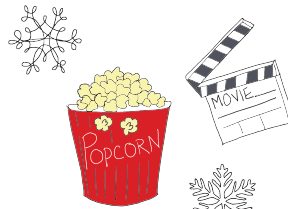

Cozy Winter Fun List

Have an indoor campout and read a book by flashlight.

Download music from our website to have a dance party! (You can use Freegal or hoopla.)

Have a winter movie marathon with titles from Kanopy.

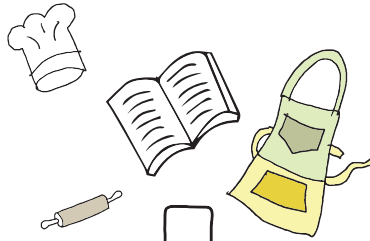

Write a book review online or on a piece of paper.

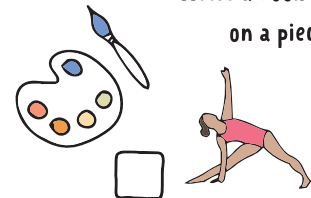

Put on a play from your favorite book.

Bundle up, take a walk, and find something for each letter of the alphabet. Who can get to Z the fastest?

Check out a cookbook and try a recipe.

Try a fun Library program!

Borrow some poetry books and then write winter poems.

Huebner Collection scavenger hunt:

You can view pieces from the Huebner Collection of Original Art from Picture Books at Main Library (Children's Library), Holland, Lagrange, Locke, Maumee, Oregon, Point Place, Reynolds Corners (coming soon), Sanger, South, Sylvania (coming soon), Toledo Heights, and West Toledo.

If you can't get to a location with these pieces, look for the scavenger hunt items in other picture books at your Library location.

Mouse

Frog

Book

Car

Snowman

Umbrella

Cat

Bicycle

Flower

Monkey

